The tutors are highly experienced and motivated to meet the requirements of the students and hence they prepare schedules and plans accordingly to boost up the performance of them and now, this clinical role played by the company will now be available in Mumbai too.

The CEO of the company Sukhish Chawla stated earlier "After getting an emphatic response from Delhi and NCR region private tutors, we are looking forward to establishing ourselves in Mumbai also. Our mission is simple to keep this company moving higher and to provide extra income to tutors and more importantly help students to learn more efficiently as it is going to bring a change in the performance of the students and contribute to our country's growth as well."

GharPeShiksha is a platform where the gap between tutors and students is evicted. Basically, the company provides home tuitions to private tutors with a simple membership plan from which they get inquiries of the students on a daily basis as per the membership plan through mails, messages and the GharPeShiksha Tutor app. Inquiries of students are sent on the basis of the nearby location and preferences of the subjects and courses the tutor wants to teach.
