

How young influencer sam become inspiration for youth

Faridabad, Mar 26, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - When Intelligence and Creativity blends together make an absolute professional like Shamsher Ansari of Faridabad, Delhi-NCR. He is also known by the nickname 'Sam'. He is passionate about acting and curious to become an actor. Sam is a big fan of Kapil Sharma. He created a good name in the field of brand promotion and digital marketing entrepreneur. He grabbed a position in the youngest Influencer talents in India. Amazing!

Isn't it?

Sam is born and brought up in Faridabad, Delhi-NCR. He has completed a medical degree from Sharda University, Greater Noida. Since childhood, he was very much fan of social media and was always curious to know more about it.

Sam always wanted to be self-dependent. Currently, he is a Studentpreneur who truly believes, "You don't have to wait till completing the graduation to launch your own business." Sam is a highly qualified Digital Marketing professional and yes, it has become his passion now.

Right at a very young age of 13, Shamsher decided to learn something new in social media. Since he was very keen and interested in gaining knowledge related to social media, he started learning new things. His interest got him in the world of digital media when social media was spreading its roots in India.

In the year, 2018 Sam along with his close friend, Anuj Adhana created a panel. The panel received humorous response from the audience by getting 65 Million viewers. It also achieved the top 500 Alexa Rank.

They say, "Failure is the first step towards success." Sam once again with pure confidence started a new venture. The primary aim of the company is to uplift the underrated talented content creators. As both were keen and was having profound knowledge of marketing, they helped the content creators to set up their online presence and bring them in the spotlight.

Sam is working as a freelancer and associate producer, and also a core member of Meme Community having a huge knowledge of social media and movies promotions. He had worked with 25 + brands and successfully handled the social media promotions of 15 + Bollywood movies which includes- babumoshai bandookbaaz, The family man to name a few.

"The Passion and dedication towards the aim always lead to Success", yes, Sam prove that right! Best wishes!
