Get to know Orthopaedic Surgeon Dr. Juan Marcelo Giugale, who serves patients throughout the State of Pennsylvania.

New York City, Mar 11, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Giugale is a board-certified orthopaedic surgeon and an upper extremity specialist who utilizes minimally-invasive arthroscopic techniques and employs the latest, proven, cutting-edge technology for the shoulder, elbow, and hand. He believes in a team approach between physician and patient, cultivating an atmosphere of trust that is pivotal to a successful outcome.

Specializing in shoulder surgery & hand and upper extremity surgery, the doctor practices with Greater Pittsburgh Orthopaedic Associates, serving patients at several office locations in the Pittsburgh Metro area, including Brackenridge, Shadyside, South Side, and Cranberry Township. As Pittsburgh's oldest continuously operating orthopaedic surgery practice, Greater Pittsburgh Orthopaedic Associates consists of a team of professionals who provide comprehensive, compassionate, skilled, state-of-the-art orthopaedic care in a warm and inviting environment.

In regards to his educational background, Dr. Giugale graduated from the University of Virginia as part of the prestigious Echols Scholar program. He remained at the University of Virginia for medical school, where he was inducted into the Alpha Omega Alpha Honor Medical Society. He then continued his training at the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center, where he completed his residency in orthopaedic surgery and subspecialty fellowship in hand & upper extremity.

Orthopaedic surgery is the branch of surgery concerned with conditions involving the musculoskeletal system. Orthopaedic surgeons use both surgical and nonsurgical means to treat musculoskeletal trauma, spine diseases, sports injuries, degenerative diseases, infections, tumors, and congenital disorders. They work in clinical and hospital settings.

Born to Argentinian parents, Dr. Giugale is fluent in both English and Spanish. Throughout his youth, he lived in four different continents and has a passion for global outreach, performing international medical mission work in Argentina, Bolivia, Costa Rica, Panama, and Peru.

Outside of the office, he is an avid sportsman and a fitness enthusiast. He plays soccer multiple times a week in indoor and outdoor leagues in western Pennsylvania. He is fond of the culinary arts, and of the booming Pittsburgh food scene. He enjoys cooking and is a member of several communities supported agriculture crop shares. True to his Argentinian roots, he pursues a life-long quest to perfect the art of grilling a steak.

Happily married, Dr. Giugale and his wife, a urogynecologist, live in the city with their daughter.
