Manuel Ros restructure and expand his corporate organization

Finance in London, Management in New York and Commercial Forces Worldwide

London, Mar 13, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Markets and Countries Economies instability are just a regular stimulation for Manuel Ros, who recently had to face big entrepreneurship challenges, restructuring its organization in a short period to maintain and to improve the business performances.

“Over the past years we acquired constant and strong attention from major financial institutions, obtaining unexpected partnerships worldwide that boosted and accelerated my group expansion, producing different needs in terms of knowledge and infrastructure”, said Manuel Ros, President of FINSOR HOLDING.

He brought the Group throughout a significant corporate overhaul initiated since last year, creating its private financial entity ROSWEALTH as custodian of his personal and family wealth, basing the new private headquarters in London formed by a due internal organization, dedicated to controlling the equity produced by the Group along with his private interests.

As part of the new corporate profile, there is FINSOR HOLDING, relocated to New York and in charge of overlooking, develop and expand the entire business performed by all subsidiaries having branches and businesses worldwide. To the USA, Manuel Ros has decided to move as well all other head offices, creating single headquarters representing each company's forming the corporation.

Part of the strategy has been to offer more presence to REMAR, the group's financial entity, setting up various commercial financial offices, in the ten best financial areas in the world, dedicated to raising funds, through a customized team of brokers with high financial knowledge.

"Each country has the DNA to doing something good, in particular, this doesn’t mean that could be perfect for doing everything. My decision has been based on a deep analysis to understand which country owns the culture, criteria, and people knowledge necessary to satisfy my corporate needs", said the Group's President.

"Moving every single part of the organization in the right country has been a successful decision confirmed by the recent results" declare the FINSOR HOLDING's Founder.

Today's Manuel Ros group shows growth in numbers but especially in the amount of equity collected from the investor's, supported by the partnerships and investments solidified by the performances.

Media Contact

FINANCIAL POST

mlewis@financialpost.com

Source : FINANCIAL POST

See on IssueWire