

Michigan Coronavirus Manufacturing Shutdowns | Reduce Downtime Strength H2O Industrial Solutions

Reducing Downtime Caused By Coronavirus Infection of Michigans Manufacturing Industry, Get A Head Start

Detroit, Mar 20, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Strength H2O Industrial Solutions has been at the center of efforts to stop spreading respiratory illnesses coronavirus disease in 2020. Efforts to prevent coronavirus contamination and implement a 3-step coronavirus Remediation process at all Michigan manufacturing facilities.

- Big Three Automotive Manufacturers Shut Down Over Coronavirus Fears
- General Duty Clause of the OSH Act, 29 USC 654, section 5(a)(1) Requires That Employers Protect Their Employees From Recognized Hazards.
- Strength H2O Industrial Solutions Provides A Cost-Effective Solution To The Manufacturing Industry By Providing Large Scale Coronavirus Cleaning.

As the secondhand sweeps in one continuous motion around the clock, each minute that passes cost automotive manufacturers on average $22,000 per minute they are not running. Ford, General Motors, Fiat Chrysler shutting down factories in Detroit region. Following the steadily increasing pressure from the UAW (United Auto Workers Union) in addition to multiple confirmed coronavirus cases starting from automotive manufacturing factories.

The United States was invading Cambodia, the Boeing 747 was making its first commercial flight, and "The Beatles" were announcing they have disbanded the same year as the General Duty Clause of the 1970 OSH Act, 29 USC 654 was established. Section 5(a)(1) states that employees from recognized hazards such as the coronavirus. For employers, a potential pandemic raises significant employee safety and health issues, as well as the specter of the business continuity challenges that accompany high employee absenteeism and incapacitation rates.

Strength H2O Industrial Solutions provide a 3 step (COVID-19) REMEDIATION process. Members of the Strength H2O Industrial Solutions worked in close coordination with national and regional authorities both at central and local levels. Also, They visited hospitals, discussed patient care and infection prevention and control measures with health care workers, reviewed supported the development of a joint risk communication strategy. The team has recommended maintaining a strong focus on containment measures across the country and prioritizing the identification and testing of suspect cases. Strength H2O Industrial Solutions is the only Michigan coronavirus cleaning company capable of deploying 300+ personnel on a few hours' notice. Contact Strength H2O Industrial Solutions at (734) 544-5200 or <https://www.industrialcleaningpros.com/coronavirus-cleaning/>

Media Contact

Strength H2O Industrial Solutions

info@industrialcleaningpros.com

734-544-5200

19114 Forrest Hill Drive

Source : Strength H2O Industrial Solutions

See on IssueWire