New York City, Mar 24, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - With a focus on women's health, Dr. Baldwin is a board-certified obstetrician-gynecologist who tends to patients at Sievers Medical Clinic in Gonzales, Texas.

"As far as the obstetrics side, I take care of women before, during, and after their pregnancies. Basically I'm taking care of two patients during the pregnancy. As far as the gynecology side, I take care of any women's issues from early childhood all the way through menopause. I was kind of run the gamut on what kind of female problems are occurring. I can take care of them." as stated by the doctor.

Dr. Baldwin took to medicine after watching her grandfather become ill while she was a teen. The thought of helping others in need drew her to the occupation where she gravitated toward women's health while in med school because of the balance of care that it provides. Following the completion of her Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from the University of North Texas Health Science Center in Fort Worth in 2014, she went on to complete her residency at St. Joseph Mercy Oakland Hospital in Pontiac, Michigan.

Obstetrics and Gynecology is the medical specialty that encompasses the two subspecialties of obstetrics (covering pregnancy, childbirth, and the postpartum period) and gynecology (covering the health of the female reproductive system – vagina, uterus, ovaries, and breasts). An obstetrician-gynecologist, or OB-GYN, is a healthcare professional who specializes in female reproductive health.

On a more personal note, Dr. Baldwin grew up in a small East Texas town. When she is not seeing patients, one might see her around town with her two Welsh corgis.
