New Delhi, Mar 1, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Divya Gandotra Tandon is a young and dynamic entrepreneur, a celebrity manager, a social media manager, and an influential figure. Divya Gandotra Tandon has worked for more than 100 individual stars, influencers, and companies and recently she has been recognised by Google through a Knowledge graph.

Her Mother Namrata Gandotra said in an interview that she is very proud of her daughter as she has achieved many things at a very young age.

She was born on 5 June 2002 in Jammu, Jammu and Kashmir India. She is also an Indian Tech YouTuber. Divya Gandotra Tandon completed her secondary education from Kendriya Vidyalaya No1 Gandhi Nagar Jammu and then moved to Prince Institute of Innovative Technology Greater Noida for her further studies. Divya Gandotra Tandon loves learning new things on her own, and she is trying new concepts online with these things, which have already made a significant name in social media marketing.

Divya Gandotra is also known as the Tech Girl of the YouTube community. She used to manage everything from Noida. She is also a part of ASTNT. Pvt LTD. Divya is currently doing a diploma in computer science engineering (second year) from PIIT Greater Noida. Before her YouTube Journey, she has a big stage of fear, which was automatically vanished while making videos on YouTube.

She has faced many difficulties in this field as she is a girl, she used to make all video in a common room

But by the time her YouTube dream was not completed because of her studies and then she decided to pause her YouTube for few months, and after her exams, she again started making content with redoubled energy and hard work.
