Get to know Registered Nurse & Christian Counselor, Soon Ock Hong Kim, who serves patients in Edmonds, Washington.

New York City, Mar 9, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Soon, a highly respected registered nurse, is noted for her expertise in home care, elderly care, and nursing education. She provides exceptional care and support to her patients at Grace Cottage, an assisted living facility in Edmonds, Washington.

In addition to her work as a registered nurse, she serves as a Christian counselor, helping people regain a sense of hope for their life that is found in Jesus Christ.

Throughout her academic career, Soon earned a bachelor's degree in Midwifery in Korea. After relocating to the United States, she went on to obtain a bachelor's degree and a master's degree from Washington State University in Pullman, Washington.

With over five decades of experience in the field of nursing, she attributes her success to continuing her education, always being kind, and taking the time to understand each patient. To keep current with the new nursing developments and guidelines, she remains a distinguished member of the Washington State Nurses Association.

A registered nurse (RN) is a nurse who has graduated from a nursing program and met the requirements outlined by a country, state, province or similar licensing body to obtain a nursing license. RNs fulfill a variety of job duties. In addition to their primary role in treating and caring for patients, their responsibilities also include educating patients and the public about a variety of medical conditions, as well as providing emotional support and advice to the families of their patients. Other RN job functions include leadership, research, performing diagnostic tests and analyzing results, operating medical equipment, administering medications, recording patients' symptoms and medical histories, and assisting with patient rehabilitation and follow-up.

Due to her outstanding achievements, Soon has earned many awards for her dedication to excellence in her field, including a Daisy Award.
