

The Band Drug Hunt has Received Tremendous Applause for the Scintillating Rock Number ‘The Tower’

The band Drug Hunt has spellbound the audience with the captivating rock song ‘The Tower’. It is an incredible display of high-quality ear-splitting progression.

San Diego, Mar 20, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - The band Drug Hunt has been making rock arenas buzz with their immaculate musicality. The group based out of San Diego has belted out the electric and raucous song ‘The Tower’ which, has received a phenomenal amount of praise. Released on the Blind Owl record label the track is a part of a 4 track Self Titled EP currently available on vinyl. The band members are Rory Morison on guitar, Jason Michael Meyers on guitar, Nick Sinutko on keyboards, Ryan Schilawski on drums and Jordan Searls on the bass. They have truly mastered their post-punk psy fi psychedelic aesthetic. They have drawn inspirations from musical legends like The Fall, Ty Segall, Thee Oh Sees, Pink Floyd, The Stooges and Iggy Pop. They are now working on an entire album which is slated to come in 2020. You can watch out for the delectable posts by logging into the Facebook profile of the band.

In the track ‘The Tower’ by the band Drug Hunt has got a massive hook. The harmony in the song makes it peppy and has a razor-sharp fervor. Other popular songs by the band are ‘The Blood’ and ‘Tristeza’. One can also check out the latest shared updates made by the band members on their Instagram.

In the track by the band, there is an effortless passion that makes impeccable rock sounds. The full-throttle acoustics creates breathtaking energy and vibrancy. One can listen to their songs by plugging into popular streaming apps like Spotify.

Listen to the song 'The Tower' on Spotify :

<https://open.spotify.com/track/0xm0PXABJ7NZs3mXlhvs5C>

Media Contact

The Tunes Club

info@thetunesclub.com

Source : Drug Hunt

See on IssueWire