

360 Executives Inks Strategic Partnership with Concept Matrix Solutions

Scottsdale, Apr 7, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - 360 Executives, LLC, announced today it has finalized a Strategic Partnership Agreement with California based Concept Matrix Solutions Inc.

“We have been working with Concept Matrix for over two years. Their ability to offer patented and unique delivery platforms and their commitment to the science of formulation and manufacturing is second to none, said David Trecek, CEO of 360. “The agreement is a critical step in our strategy to bring the best products to the brands we support, our private label clients and accelerates our product commercialization.”

Under the terms of the agreement, 360 Executives will be the exclusive business development arm for Concept Matrix and in turn, will utilize Concept Matrix Solutions as the exclusive manufacturing partner for all cannabinoid-based and nutraceutical products. 360 Executives will also receive preferred pricing and first access to new product launches.

“This long-awaited Strategic Partnership with 360 Executives, LLC, gives us the ability to broaden our business reach from business to business and include business to consumer, while also offering established and diverse demographical brands to many of our start-up clientele”, said Tony LaRosa, CEO of Concept Matrix Solutions. “Receiving valuable consumer data from 360 Executives’ brands will provide us with new opportunities to continue to develop safe and cutting-edge delivery systems.”
