Tianna has always had an interest in writing but never imagined the wonders of how strongly impacting her story of changing her life with positivity would become.

After 9 years of work, Tianna has released her autobiography. Seeking a vision of truth, the author, Tianna Jones, took up many different professions while focusing on her dream as a writer. These positions are listed inside the story-line as part of a hard- working woman's struggle to survive titled 'Cali Girl how did you make it in the Treacherous Streets of Detroit?' Ever since Tianna was young, she had an affinity for music, even competing in her first rap battle in 6th grade. With close family affiliated in the entertainment industry, Tianna always had a pen and paper in hand and always kept creating. Jones shows her self-made talent and skills the song called 'Im'a show you what the hustle did' where she sang and directed first music video. She created her whole music video concept, secured funding for the project and she even stage managed her own video. Jones stayed determined to succeed in her production by spreading positive light, and keeping her faith in God.

Jones's first autobiography shows that there are good people with good or bad intentions, and there are bad people with good or bad intentions. Jones said, "I ask people every day, which type of person do you want to be?" Tianna Jones enjoys outdoor hobbies such as snow skiing, hiking, camping and fishing. When she is keeping it mellow, she enjoys listening to music, cooking up new recipes, and reading poetry.

She likes to enjoy her life by trying new things including ethnic foods. She enjoys travelling, spending time in nature and connecting with God. Miss Jones spends time with friends and family, putting her positive energy into the ones she loves. She enjoys living and finally not surviving. Jones practices everyday on her journey of good faith and positive energy.
