Get to know Neurologist Dr. Harmeet Singh, who serves patients in Leesburg, Virginia.

New York City, Apr 25, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - Dedicated to helping his patients regain control of their lives, Dr. Singh provides the latest in neurological treatment options along with compassionate, patient-centered care at Clinical Neurology, PC in Leesburg, Virginia.

Combining 20+ years of experience in a wide variety of treatment and testing options with friendly, knowledgeable staff and a focus on personalized patient care, he is the leading neurology outpatient doctor in northern Virginia. His patients have excellent things to say about him, one stating “The doctor was very respectful, professional, and helpful with everything that I needed during my appointment.”

After completing medical school at Dayanand Medical College & Hospital, Ludhiana in India, Dr. Singh relocated to the United States to further his training. There, he completed his residency in neurology and his fellowship in neurophysiology at Temple University Hospital in Philadelphia.

With a passion for the field and an unwavering commitment to his specialty, the doctor understands the exhausting nature of living with chronic conditions and he works hard to offer an array of cutting-edge and alternative treatment options to let his patients have a direct role in how they receive comfort and care. Whether it's acupuncture, Botox, or more classic treatment options for neurological conditions, he knows that each treatment option has its place.

Neurology is a branch of medicine dealing with disorders of the nervous system. Neurologists are licensed medical specialists who diagnose and treat disorders that affect the brain, spinal cord, nerves, and muscles of patients. They examine a patient's mental and physical status, conduct medical tests and scans, and evaluate the results to diagnose and treat the patient.
