

Idoneus To Advance Its Technological Development Through Partnership With LimeChain.

New Strategic Partnership Will Secure Digital Transformation Utilizing Blockchain and Smart Contract Technologies.

Zug, Apr 25, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - Idoneus announced a strategic partnership with LimeChain, one of the leading blockchain development companies in Europe. This partnership will further strengthen the technological advancement of the Idoneus Platform.

"For the selection of our technology partner, it was very important for us to find the right partner that could provide us not only with proven expertise, but also with creative input into the functionality of the platform, a flexible work model, and a sincere interest and belief in our business model," says Marco van der Weijden, VP Digital Transformation at Idoneus. "We are very pleased to have found that combination in LimeChain. The team is very professional, has the right mindset, and is very solution-oriented. LimeChain has already proven to be a very capable partner. We are excited to be working together and confident that we will successfully reinvent the global luxury asset market."

The key benefits of this partnership are:

- Long term collaboration with one of the leading blockchain development companies in Europe.
- Gaining crucial knowledge and experience to drive the digital transformation of the new economy for the luxury market.
- Securing vital technical capabilities to enable the advancement of the Idoneus Platform.

"Over the past 3 years, we've become the Blockchain and DLT solutions partner of choice for startups and large companies. There is a lot of innovation happening in the digital world these days and the next 12 months will be key, both for startups and enterprises. It is an exciting time for the sector and we hope to see more and more companies like Idoneus adopting Blockchain and DLT to innovate and lead the transformation in their markets" says George Spasov, Chief architect and co-founder at LimeChain. "Our work with Idoneus shows that blockchain can make a real difference to the way a business runs, and how it can make their customers even happier. We are proud to work with such a great company like Idoneus and join forces in one common goal - disrupting the global luxury asset market."
