

My Family Book Nook Podcast Launches on Podbean.com

Kentucky author Anne Severn Williamson delights family audiences with The Fairy Lore of Ghost Horse Hollow

Berea, May 29, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Kentucky author Anne Severn Williamson launched her new podcast MY FAMILY BOOK NOOK on Podbean.com this Easter Sunday @ 4:00 pm Eastern Standard Time USA. The Podcast features her fantasy book series The Fairy Lore of Ghost Horse Hollow, a Post-Apocalyptic narrative set in the Appalachian Wilderness one hundred years in the future. The episodes begin with the first book in the saga TURN of the BLADE. Families will enjoy the 30-minute fantasy adventure with enchanting and courageous characters, both fairy and human. Twenty-five years in the making, The Fairy Lore of Ghost Horse Hollow has many prophetic elements which are now coming true.

MY FAMILY BOOK NOOK also features stories and myths from around the world in support of literacy, conservation, and cultural exchange. Families may tune in each Sunday afternoon at 4:00 pm EST for the next installment in the exciting adventures of the MacKennon homesteaders and their beautiful blue-eyed Ghost Horses. The real Ghost Horses reside at Ghost Horse Highland Farm in eastern Kentucky on the border of the Daniel Boone National Forest, so the Podcast links reality with good, old fashion storytelling.
