Margaretville Hospital is a critical access hospital and Nanette is the sole provider in the Emergency room with no ER physician.

She functions at the capacity of an ER physician. Nanette run codes, preforms intubations, and cricothyrotomies, places chest tubes, deliver babies and reduces dislocation and fractures. She stabilizes all the patients that come through our hospital. she has been doing this for years and has worked in the same capacity in Lake Placid for 5 years. Her other background is as Paramedic as she worked in the South Bronx for 13 years and was at the first world trade tower bombing on Feb 23, 1993. She worked predominantly as an Emergency advanced provider in a rural area where there are no physicians with my expertise. They have 4 providers and do 24 hours shifts on a rotating schedule

Margaretville Hospital is a 15-bed critical access hospital located adjacent to Route 28 in the town of Margaretville in Delaware County. The first Margaretville Hospital was established in 1931 in a two-story white farmhouse in the center of town. The present facility was opened in 1969, thanks in part to a dedicated fundraising commitment from community residents who felt strongly that a new hospital would provide the best health care for the surrounding rural area. Today, Margaretville Hospital is a comprehensive rural community health system that provides a wide range of services to residents of Delaware, Greene, Ulster, and Schoharie counties. In 2001, Margaretville Hospital and Mountainside Residential Care Center joined with HealthAlliance of the Hudson Valley, a not-for-profit charitable organization that promotes health care education, service, and support throughout the region.

In regards to her education, Nanette graduated with a Master's Degree as a physician assistant from Baylor College of Medicine in 1993, giving her over two decades of experience in her field. Baylor College of Medicine, located in the Texas Medical Center in Houston, Texas, US, is a health sciences university.

Physician assistants are healthcare professionals who assist physicians in the practice of medicine as a part of a healthcare team while collaborating physicians and other providers. Physician Assistants are concerned with preventing and treating human illness and injury by providing a plethora of health care services under a supervising physician. Their scope of practice varies by jurisdiction and healthcare setting.
