

Online Japanese school adds more free group discussions.

The inner world of online Japanese group lessons.

Fukuoka, Apr 11, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - The Chat Events at JOI Online Japanese school have always been a little popular with members. But during the recent outbreak of the COVID-19 virus and subsequent self-quarantine measures, more and more people feel the need to reach out and talk to people all over the world.

And these free discussion groups have proved to be a wonderful solution. Instead of focusing on future anxiety, the enforced shut-down could give people a welcome time to reflect on health and life values.

More free time has also increased interest in the online Japanese group lessons provided by JOI online Japanese school .

Online courses can be much more than book learning, and with group classes, you can meet people online and learn a new language while making friends.

"Learning broadens our horizons, brings new opportunities and is beneficial to our humanity and spiritual well-being," says Japanese Online Institute CEO Chiho Kamioka.

"At JOI, the staff and teachers work to provide a space to enjoy learning Japanese within an online community,"

JOI is an online Japanese language school with a 15 year history and over 4000 students enrolled since 2006.

The school offers group and private Japanese lessons, and now instead of 3 Trial Lessons, they
