

OPTASY Joins the Fight Against COVID-19 and Offers FREE Drupal Support to Organizations Providing Relief

Organizations fighting the COVID-19 pandemic now have a new ally.

Oakville, Apr 14, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - OPTASY, one of Canada's leaders in Drupal development, joins the fight against the pandemic by offering free Drupal website support to organizations directly involved in COVID-19 response.

"The OPTASY team's hearts and minds go to all those directly impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic. And, since many of the company's clients are health, government, education, and non-profit organizations involved in fighting COVID-19, either by turning their websites into reliable sources where people can get accurate, regular information or by providing relief to those in need, the team decided to assist them in their efforts. Therefore, OPTASY is ready to provide them with free Drupal website support for at least 90 days." said Adrian Ababei, CEO of OPTASY, Inc.

The OPTASY team's in-depth Drupal expertise is best reflected by its 15+ years of experience working with this CMS.

And also by the key clients listed in their portfolio, which range from Maple Leaf Sports & Entertainment Ltd. to the Equal Opportunity Community Initiative, to the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education, Mechanics Hub, Allard Prize, Intelex Community...

"All they need to do is reach out to the OPTASY support team. They're here to help them with their online efforts. In this respect, there's a whole team of Drupal experts at OPTASY ready to put their experience to work for those organizations that are currently involved in fighting COVID-19" Adrian Ababei further added.

About OPTASY

OPTASY started out, in 2005, as a purely Drupal agency.

Then, it gradually added new and new web, mobile app development, and emerging technologies to its repertoire and new services to its menu.

All while gaining its reputation as "Canada's top Drupal developers" (according to Clutch).
