Get to know Dentist Dr. Sarah White, who serves patients in Souderton, Pennsylvania.

New York City, Apr 21, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Specializing in cosmetic and implant dentistry, Dr. White tends to patients' dental needs at R.L. Daschbach & Associates in Souderton, Pennsylvania. She strives to deliver dental care to the utmost of her ability, helping patients improve their oral health in the most comfortable and pleasant manner.

Back in 2010, Dr. White earned her Doctor of Medicine in Dentistry degree from the Maurice H. Kornberg School of Dentistry - Temple University. She then went on to complete her general practice residency at NewYork-Presbyterian/Columbia University Irving Medical Center in 2011, followed by her internship in oral and maxillofacial surgery at Hahnemann University Hospital-Drexel in 2013.

For the purpose of advancing her professional efforts, she remains a member of several dental organizations, including the American Dental Association, the Pennsylvania Dental Association, and the Academy of General Dentistry. She is also certified by the Drug Enforcement Administration.

Dentistry, also known as Dental and Oral Medicine, is a branch of medicine that consists of the study, diagnosis, prevention, and treatment of diseases, disorders, and conditions of the oral cavity. Dentists diagnose and treat dental issues and help patients develop better oral hygiene regimens. They clean teeth, correct bite issues, perform surgeries and extractions and perform other duties to ensure that the teeth and mouth are healthy.

On the subject of her philanthropic endeavors, Dr. White leads the dental branch for the nonprofit organization, Sharing the Journey International, which provides surgical, medical, and humanitarian aid to families in Guatemala.
