

The Kins Delight - Sia Immigration Solutions Inc.

Kamloops, Apr 28, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Canada is a developed country and everyone wants to travel to this land in search of a better prospect for the future. Sia Immigration is a Consulting firm that facilitates going to Canada. Immigration to a country requires certain prerequisites to be fulfilled and paperwork to be done. If you are already a resident of Canada, then you can always sponsor your spouse or legal heir through the spouse sponsorship program in Canada. The company has decided to launch a kin support program, for the kiths and kins of those people who have taken the immigration consultation in the past.

Upon briefing the media, the founder of the company said that ‘we are glad to launch the kin support program for the family members of all those folks, who have taken consultation from us at any point in time. This is an ongoing program and will benefit the people who are willing to fly to Canada. If a person applies for Canada Immigration through our services and then flies to Canada, the kins of that person are eligible to take part in this kin support program, after showing the membership card which will be provided to the first applicant from the family.’

The Kin Support Program

If flying to Canada is your dream, then you can enroll or avail in this kin support program and be liable for various benefits. If a person is the first applicant from a family then he can get a membership card that will benefit his / her family members by waving off the 50% of the processing fees. If your family member has availed our consultation service then you can just enjoy the rebate and give wings to your dream of flying to Canada. If Canada is on your mind, you can not miss this opportunity.
