"Queen's Crown" is the sixth of seven songs in this release. TopJaw is a Los Angeles rock band that consists of three personnel.

Los Angeles, Apr 22, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - TopJaw, the Los Angeles based rock band, has announced their latest single titled "Queen's Crown." "Queen's Crown" is an upbeat rock song about a girl who acts like she's the queen of the world, but her lies catch up with her in the end. This single is the sixth of seven songs in this release. Within the announcement, the band also informs that they will continue their west coast tour as the coronavirus pandemic condition permits. However, their manager said that the Gitarijada Rock Festival in Serbia has been canceled and is tentatively rebooked for June 2021. He added, more info to come.

Previously, the band that consists of Mike Kindel on Guitar & Vocals, Will Wilson on Vocals & Bass, and Sammy Wilson on Drums have released five singles in this release. The songs are Dealin' Double, Fastback, Want It Back, Rain Dance, The Flood, and the latest single release is Queen's Crown. The songs can be listened to and downloaded on several online platforms, such as Youtube, Spotify, Amazon Music, CD Baby, Deezer, and Soundcloud.

TopJaw brings classic rock to the modern stage. Their music path was inspired by the leading bands and guitarists of their time. Rooted in a strong blues-rock foundation, and inspired by Stevie Ray Vaughan and ZZ Top, TopJaw's songs have been raved about by press outlets worldwide. This makes them increasingly known by rock music lovers across the USA, as well as their songs being played on radio stations all around the USA. They also played at Hollywood's major jam nights, and they were also the featured band at the NAMM after-party for LiveNation at the House of Blues in Anaheim.
