

An Up And Coming Artist From Chicago

Dakota James

Indianapolis, May 23, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - Born and raised in Chicago IL, his versatility continues to amaze people around the world. His creativity allows him to not be boxed in and definitely creates a lane of his own. His rhyme scheme and his ability to paint pictures with his words are amazing. You can definitely get all your questions about him answered by listening to his music. He is not your typical Chicago artist, just check him out and see for yourself.

Dakota James just released his debut single titled "Sorry". The production is amazing and the content is very relatable. He is definitely a rising star. Check him out on Amazon Music and other digital platforms.
