

CALL FOR ENTRIES: Photojournalists

Seeking curated photos from around the world illustrating the effect and outcome of the pandemic at its most extreme for our upcoming book: "A World Disrupted".

Miami, May 5, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - TributeStudios to produce new wartime book: "A WORLD DISRUPTED - A Pandemic Event"

Boutique self-publishing enterprise TributeStudios is in the early stages of accepting photos from around the world illustrating the effect and outcome of the pandemic at its most extreme. The book, "A World Disrupted", will document in stunning black and white photography dramatic scenes of an absence of humanity where face masks and social distancing are the new normal. From "draconian" measures to "stay-in-place", to financial and economic ruin, lives are now under the control and influence of a yet-to-be harnessed virus. "A World Disrupted" will chronicle this epic journey in print through the exquisite images from photographers around the world.

CALL FOR ENTRIES: Photographers and photojournalists

Any person using photography in their work or as an individual can enter here. Photos should be taken after January 1, 2020.

Accepted format: JPG, TIF - 300DPI for print production.

File Size: Up to 100 MB *Uploaded photos: Must be named with date and location.

Photos selected will be published honoring each entry and credited to the submission name on the entry form.

A portion of the book's proceeds will go to support a children's humanitarian organization working around the world to ensure every child has access to health care and immunizations, clean water and sanitation, nutrition, education, emergency relief and more.

Author publisher JD Schwartz states: "This book is a journey into the unknown, a wartime book where an exquisite collection of black and white images from photographers around the globe will crystallize and illustrate this moment in time."
