

Cultivated Entertainment Offering a Comprehensive Range of Talent Services

Los Angeles, May 6, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - Cultivated Entertainment (<https://www.cultivatedent.com/>) is the “one-stop-shop” for world-class and all-encompassing talent services for all industries.

With over a decade of experience in the entertainment business, they bring long-lasting media relationships and offer clients with customized services in film, TV, print, radio, consumer branding, digital, live events, and so much more.

Cultivated Entertainment provides their clients with a broad range of talent services, ensuring that you get the right talent for every project.

Talent Booking

Cultivated Entertainment customizes their booking strategy to each client with strong industry relationships for a range of talent including athletes, authors, celebrities, influencers, experts and more. Cultivated works with agents, managers, publicists, record labels and more to ensure they secure the best talent for your project.

Cultivated Entertainment handles everything including brainstorming ideas, researching and providing a comprehensive booking list, coordinating on-site logistics such as travel requests, grooming needs, payment/paperwork, and the onsite handling of talent and their reps.

Producing

A more comprehensive service than the standard talent booking. With producing, Cultivated Entertainment aids clients in navigating content and details with producers, showrunners, writers, and talent.

Cultivated Entertainment develops creative concepts and coordinates with a rep and their talent, ensuring that they are up to speed and fully prepared to make the collaboration successful.

Casting Service

Cultivated Entertainment uses comprehensive and broad outreach tactics in order to identify and cast talent for your needs. Whether you are looking for A-list celebrities for a commercial or human interest non-actors, a contestant, a background actor, a certified expert to be paired up with a celebrity, they will deliver only relevant talent.

This service includes developing casting flyers, receiving audition tapes/reels as needed, interviewing talent prior to presenting to the client, and then negotiating talent fees as well as dealing with their contract particulars.

Influencer Placement and Engagement

In this highly advanced digital world, Cultivated Entertainment brings over 10 years of relationships with digital talents and influencers ranging in all sectors and age demographics; beauty, health & wellness, gaming, travel, comedy, and more. They combine clients vision with their own ideas and thoughts, reaching out to the right talent for the appropriate audience, and ensuring both wide and targeted reach on the appropriate social channels.

Cultivated Entertainment also helps clients identify the best opportunity in terms of budget allocation for this digital engagement to assist in the deal-making process.

Strategy and Consulting

Cultivated Entertainment works with several networks, streaming platforms, production companies, and brands, which gives them constant and updated insight into the landscape of content. Having a constant pulse on the industry allows them to offer expert knowledge and advice that will take your project to the next level.

CE's consulting services help in building industry awareness and planning out talent strategy. Cultivated Entertainment serves as an extra brain in developing options and ideas for your projects.

Talent and Project Development

From a project point of view, Cultivated can help in developing a concept-based talent or a talent-based concept. With their unique perspective and experience in the ever-changing talent industry, they can present you with all the right talents and developmental elements.
