Get to know Nephrologist Dr. Eric S. Lazar, who serves patients in Boca Raton, Florida.

New York City, May 27, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Lazar is a practicing nephrologist in practice with Boca Raton Regional Hospital, a not-for-profit, advanced tertiary medical center with 400 beds and more than 800 primary and specialty physicians on staff.

Located in Boca Raton, Florida, the Hospital is a recognized leader in cardiovascular care, oncology, women's health, orthopedics, emergency medicine, and neurosciences, all of which offer state-of-the-art diagnostic and imaging capabilities. Its mission is to deliver the highest quality patient care with unrelenting attention to clinical excellence, patient satisfaction, and patient safety.

Following the completion of his medical degree from The Chicago Medical School in 2001, Dr. Lazar went on to complete his internship and residency at the McGraw Medical Center of Northwestern University in Chicago in 2002 and 2004, respectively. In 2006, he completed a fellowship at the University of Chicago Hospitals.

With an unwavering commitment to his profession, the doctor is board-certified in internal medicine and nephrology by the American Board of Internal Medicine, which is a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

Nephrology is a specialty of medicine and pediatrics that concerns itself with the kidneys. It is the study of normal kidney function and kidney disease, the preservation of kidney health, and the treatment of kidney disease, from diet and medication to renal replacement therapy. Nephrologists have advanced training in treating kidney disease. They diagnose and treat kidney failure, as well as help patients by prescribing medications, offering special diet advice, and coordinating dialysis care when the time comes.
