

FlipFone Fab Brings a Fresh Sound to the Industry

Atlanta, May 11, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Flipfone Fab, professional artist/songwriter from Savannah, GA currently residing in Atlanta. Currently making noise and starting to build a massive fan base, the real and organic way. Always keeping the content real and relatable. This allows fans to know where to go for real music. With every release, fans new and old can really feel the pains and joys of his life. Every lyric, every bar and every track is something he has experienced. No cookie cutter tracks. Even though he just started music in 2011, FlipFone Fab isn't new to the streets and the lifestyle that comes with it. Living this lifestyle for real, will keep the genuine music coming.

At an early age Flipfone Fab was exposed to the streets. Weather this happened by choice or force, the streets has been his stomping grounds. This is where he was influenced by people around him to pursue music. You can tell he puts his all into every song. Fab is so passionate about music, he put a recording studio into his home. This way when creativity hits, he can immediately create a banger. Dedication like this is a reason Fab will be in the industry for a while. Even though, not in the major music industry level as of yet, the rapper is thankful for his Manager FMG and Peso. Thankful for their continuous push to level up in the music industry. Just creating music that's real to him, he wants to be known for not "trying to fit in." Keeping in mind, "That there's always someone out there that will love your music," the rapper states he will always keep his music original to himself.

Seeing people enjoy his music is a huge influence for Fab. This is why he is so passionate to make music work for him. There will be more chances to see FlipFone Fab in person and become a fan. So far in 2017 Fab left the SXSW Street Exec Stage on fire. Everyone in the room felt the indescribable energy the rapper brought.
