

Forget Your Boring Old Routine with Jesse Lopez's Recent Hilarious Music Video 'Quarantine Made Me Do It'

The talented musician Jesse Lopez offers an endless entertainment of fun and joy with his newest music video 'Quarantine Made Me Do It' projecting interesting visuals.

Nashville, Dec 31, 1969 (Issuewire.com) - Amid the worldwide lockdown due to the recent pandemic, musicians of many genres have resorted to coping with the isolation through the means of music. One such country/rock artist Jesse Lopez has presented his fans with his newest gem 'Quarantine Made Me Do It' which offers a delightful experience of fun and laughter with his well-placed crazy lyrics with an equally hilarious music video featuring the artist's some extremely absurd and comical performances generating amusing reactions from his fans. With a striking instrumental background score, the song displays a beautiful fusion of rock and country musicality with a hint of the artist's romantic soul and his Mexican-Italian charm. His soulful and robust voice gives the song a steady progression getting the audience hooked on his masterful creation.

With the heart of a matador, the brilliant artist has always been distinctive at expressing his thoughts and feelings through his compositions, being well versed in lyrical wordplay. Facing many difficulties, he has defied all odds with a positive determination and emerged with his passionate craftsmanship resulting in the creation of some ethereal compositions. Stubborn for success, he utilizes his musical wisdom of various instrumental tonalities in his favor that translates beautifully into his music producing a captivating symphony.

Hailing from Nashville, this independent singer-cum-songwriter, employs his creative capabilities to project the reminiscent of Kane Brown, Luke Combs, and Eric Church through his creations. His latest music video ‘Quarantine Made Me Do It’ is opulent with addictive melodies with a perfect chord arrangement with an amusing and engaging rhythmic tempo. Painting an honest picturesque narrative of how they spend their quarantine days with a ridiculously entertaining video presentation and witty and humorous wordplay, the song has garnered a lot of positive attention from the people on the internet. With Eric Clapton, Rob Thomas, and Neil Young as his inspiration, Jesse Lopez has exhibited his wondrous creative imagination through his other tracks ‘That Smile’, ‘Wild’, What Love Is’, and ‘Can’t Call You Home’. Make sure to visit his website and follow him on YouTube, Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram and listen to his charming melodies.

Listen to the Original Quarantine Song ‘Quarantine Made Me Do It’, visit below:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EXhYcFdJKJE>

Media Contact

Music Promotion Club

info@musicpromotion.club

Source : Jesse Lopez

See on IssueWire