

GoTen.com Has Been Updated to Improve Dropshipping Services

Shenzhen, May 26, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Shortly after rolling out the GoTen Global Site, GoTen's team updated the website between May 24 and 25. Now, GoTen.com offers delivery to remote regions, diverse value-added services, more details on product pages, and so on. The updates are to support its growing dropshipping business and offer better services.

More Convenience in Choosing Logistics Services

On GoTen Dropshipping Platform, US1 and US2 were used to differentiate different local US warehouses. Currently, customers can only find the dispatch areas without numbers, namely, the US, UK. Instead of letting customers make decisions, the warehouses are chosen by the smart system.

GoTen.com also provides different options for logistic services now, and the price will change according to the selection of the dispatch area and logistics service. When online retailers process an order, once a selling platform is selected, a suitable logistics service will be automatically chosen.

Delivery to the Remote Regions in the US/UK

GoTen offers free shipping while the product price covers the shipping cost. For the remote regions and overweight products, it will charge extra shipping fees.

Before the updates, online sellers couldn't place an order online with GoTen to deliver products in remote regions, including PUERTO RICO(PR), HAWAII (HI), VIRGIN ISLANDS (VI), ALASKA (AK), GUAM GU (GU), AMERICAN SAMOA (AS), AE, AP, MP in the United States; Dundee (DD), Edinburgh (EH), Portsmouth (PO), Galashiels (TD), Truro (TR), Kirkcaldy (KY), Aberdeen (AB), Northern Ireland (BT), Falkirk (FK), Guernsey (GY), Outer Hebrides (HS), Isle of Man (IM), Inverness (IV), Jersey (JE), Kilmarnock (KA), Kirkwall (KW), Paisley (PA), Perth (PH), ZE in the United Kingdom.

In contrast, they are able to obtain more market share with more convenient online services, i.e., order placement and quotation.

Various Value-Added Services Available

The updates allow GoTen members to choose the following value-added services according to their needs: Signature Service, 16-Year-Old Verification, 18-Year-Old Verification, Insurance, and FDS (FlexDelivery Service).

The extra fees will increase as value-added services are added to more parcels, leading to the change of order amount.

As for the checkout, the statuses of orders to be shipped to remote regions or including value-added services will be "Awaiting Quotation"; only after online retailers receive the quotation, can they pay for the orders.

More Information on Product Pages

At present, there is more information on GoTen's product pages, such as value-added services, logistics service, estimated lead time, tags, specifications, and so on.

It's worth mentioning that the product price displayed on each page is the minimum by default. What's more, retailers can easily know how long it takes to fulfill the order by referring to the estimated lead time.

An Improvement in Stock Reservation

The dropshipping wholesale supplier also plans to update the function of the stock reservation during May 24 and 31 without affecting the visits to the website. The update is to change the way to query the available stock by using the middle processor henceforth to ensure the consistency in stock numbers in real-time. Therefore, online retailers working with GoTen.com can effectively prevent the trouble of overselling.

About GoTen
