

How Akamikeberry and Je. Sincere saved entertainment with EMEF Co

San Diego, May 29, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Emef Co is a creative collective of musical talent, entrepreneurs, trendy misfits, fashion insiders & entertainment from around the world. With its unique, diverse approach the brand takes its cues from luxury lifestyles, misunderstood villains, the overachievers, underground comics, skateboarding, outer space characters, new age punk, and the spirit of the go-getter as a whole. Emef is not the local fish, but more like the lock ness monster who sees its true potential and itches to see its true value in the middle of the seven seas.

Emef, founded in 2013 by AkaMikeBerry and Je.Sincere

Inspired by the money first label, experience in musical engineering, artist development, sold out drip n wet parties, historic clubs, promotional & marketing backgrounds in the mid-2000s together they decided to take it a step further and form the E.lite M.usic E.ntertainment & F.ashion and showcase exclusive merch balancing luxury techniques with streetwear elements.
