Get to know Physiatrist Dr. Kirill Alekseyev, who serves patients in Dover, Delaware.

New York City, May 14, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Physiatrist Dr. Alekseyev holds the role of Medical Director of PAM Rehabilitation Hospital of Dover in Delaware.

PAM Rehabilitation Hospital of Dover is the only freestanding medical rehabilitation hospital in Dover. It provides comprehensive care for patients who have medical issues including stroke, brain or spinal cord injury, neurological disease, or orthopedic conditions. The mission of the hospital is to provide high-quality patient care and outstanding customer service, coupled with loyal, dedicated, and highly trained staff, to be the most trusted source for post-acute services in every community it serves.

Since 2019, Dr. Alekseyev has been serving as the team physician for the professional hockey team, Delaware Thunder. He performs every aspect of medical care for the team.

With an unwavering commitment to his speciality, he remains a member of several professional organizations, including the New York Society of Physical Medicine & Rehabilitation, the Delaware Medical Society of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation, the Dover-Capital City Rotary Club, and the Medical Society of Delaware.

After earning his Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree from St. Joseph's College in 2009, Dr. Alekseyev went on to obtain his medical degree from the American University of Antigua in the Caribbean in 2014. Upon graduation, he completed his residency in physical medicine and rehabilitation at Kingsbrook Jewish Medical Center in Brooklyn, New York. While at Kingsbrook, he organized a symposium on concussions, featuring leading medical professionals in the field and retired NFL players.

The doctor attributes his success to his three great mentors: Dr. Adrian Cristian (who taught him about compassionate patient care), Dr. Marc Ross (who taught him the business aspect of practicing medicine), and Dr. Laurentiu Dinescu (his brilliant mentor, who is triple-boarded, and provided him with supportive guidance).

Physical medicine and rehabilitation, also known as physiatry and physiatrics, is a branch of medicine that aims to enhance and restore functional ability and quality of life to those with physical impairments or disabilities. Physiatrists treat a wide variety of medical conditions affecting the brain, spinal cord, nerves, bones, joints, ligaments, muscles, and tendons.

Throughout his career, Dr. Alekseyev has published a chapter, and articles in various journals, books, and databases. He has made over 20 poster and oral presentations at various National Conferences. In addition, he was a presenter at the Second Annual Grand Rounds, speaking about concussions and traumatic brain injuries, and was a keynote speaker for a presentation at the Brain Injury Association of Delaware.
