Get to know Diagnostic Radiologist Dr. Muhammad Naveed Khan, who serves patients in Mount Pleasant, Michigan.

New York City, May 15, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Khan is a board-certified diagnostic radiologist in practice with Mid-Michigan Radiology Associates in Mount Pleasant, Michigan.

“For over forty years, we at Mid-Michigan Radiology Associates have provided patients from Gratiot, Isabella, Montcalm, Clare, and Mecosta counties with high-quality diagnostic and radiology services. As an independent, local-friendly radiology service, we are able to provide our patients with lower costs, more personal care, easier accessibility, and shorter wait times for appointments. All of these features combined make for more personal, friendly service, allowing us for closer relationships with our patients.” as stated on their website.

A 1992 graduate of Khyber Medical College in Pakistan, Dr. Khan relocated to the United States to further his education. He completed his residency in diagnostic radiology and his fellowship in angiography/interventional radiology at the University of Wisconsin Hospital and Clinics in Madison. He came to Michigan from Madison, where he served the military at the Williams S. Middleton Memorial Veterans Hospital.

A member of the American College of Radiology, he is board-certified in diagnostic radiology by the American Board of Radiology, which is a not-for-profit physician-led organization that oversees the certification and ongoing professional development of specialists in diagnostic radiology, interventional radiology, radiation oncology, and medical physics.

Radiology is a medical specialty that uses medical imaging to diagnose and treat diseases within the human body. Radiologists are medical doctors who specialize in diagnosing and treating injuries and diseases using medical imaging procedures, such as exams and tests, X-rays, computed tomography, magnetic resonance imaging, nuclear medicine, mammography, positron emission tomography, and ultrasound.

Happily married, Dr. Khan and his wife have four children. They are proud to have made Michigan their home since 2009.
