We, MyBlogUs-ians, are delighted to announce the launch date of our website, myblogus.com on May 25, 2020. After months of planning and implementation, we are finally set to unveil a platform.

People, who love talking /writing, this is for you! Let's put your skills to its best because we have a platform for you where you can share your stories with the world. A one of its kind blog portal that all gives you a platform to express.

MyBlogUs is an open platform for everyone stuck inside their mind and home. No matter if you are an amateur or an expert, a storyteller or have a confession to make, a lifestyle writer or a fashion blogger, you want to be an inspiration or help someone with their issues, traveler or explorer, an educator or a guide; if you are ready to pin it down, we will give you the platform. By the means of this platform, we have taken a step to change the mindset in small ways by encouraging passionate people to feel welcomed to pour their heart out. Because everyone has something to say and a story to share!

Who We Are: The MyBlogUs is a global blogging network, delivering interesting content, platform to write, your stories, secret confessions, unbiased news, agony aunt, documentaries and more from every corner of the world to all media platforms that will fascinate and inspire audiences all over the world.

The mission of our website is to provide a platform, where anyone from anywhere can share their experience and their story with the world. While we often worry about being judged for penning our thoughts, here you don't need to worry about that. We're in this to share, grow, learn, have fun, and support each other.

The only motive to start this platform is to allow people to be themselves. Especially in these stressful times, we're helping people to stay motivated and offering ways to kill their boredom. This can be the best time to write about yourself, experiences, and feelings.

2020 Life - In just a matter of a few days, our lives had turned upside down and the novel virus has completely changed our lifestyle. What major changes have you faced since entering the year 2020? Share it with us.

Human Emotions / Your Story - Happiness, sadness, anger, fear, joy, disgust, surprise, shock, pride, envy, anxiety, embarrassment, experiences, relationship.... phew! .Try it and don't forget to share your pieces with us and we will share your experience with the world.

Secret Confessions - Shhh...! Don't worry, your secret is completely safe with us. Any confession you want to make (of course, anonymously, duh!), we are giving you a platform to vent out the secret you have been willing to share with someone but couldn't.

Agony - Write to us if you have any problem related to anything and our experts are here to solve it for you. All you need to do is, write!

And more....check the website for more or anything you have in mind, pen it down and let the world experience the same with your little help (read the blog).
