

Newly Released Music Video 'Tøngue Tied' By Sophie Castriota Sets the Bar High For Her Contemporaries

Australian RnB artist Sophie Castriota is breaking the barriers with her encouraging wordplay through her newest MV 'Tøngue Tied' projecting acoustic delight.

Brisbane, May 2, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Featuring a killer cocktail of rhythm and blues, the genre of R&B has climbed up the popularity chart effortlessly leaving all the other genres far behind. Eminent musician Sophie Castriota has again established her powerful presence with her latest music video 'Tøngue Tied' transpiring a sequence of well-organized and alluring chords resulting in a symphony of breathtaking melodies. Though it's a lyric video, the thoughtfully strung together visual elements serving as the background of the lyrics, manages to decipher the profound message that the artist wanted to convey brilliantly and artistically. The song portrays the singer's robust and charming vocal ability implementing an inexplicable grasp over the psyche of the listeners casting a spell of pure pleasure.

The Australian R&B artist, the Albanian Princess, having been well versed in classical violin, utilizes her instrumental wisdom to formulate her craft with her very own stylized rhythmic pattern and boisterous harmonic progression. Master the technical aspects of both audio and video digital production; she has embarked on a journey to present her fans with a magnificent creation, opulent in both the sonic grandeur and the ocular excellence. Blending urban, contemporary R&B, and pop musical elements, her soundscape emerges as a majestic tonal singularity. Having faced numerous difficulties, she has risen defying all odds and pushed through the obstacles joining forces with producer DJ Brandon Jonak, inventing their own unique style.

This Brisbane-based talented musician is a well-known personality in Europe spreading her uplifting and positive soundscape with motivating words. Exploring the world of lyrical wordplay, Sophie Castriota desires to empower the women trapped in a toxic relationship with through her newest creation 'Tøngue Tied', employing inspiring and eloquent libretto. The dynamic picturesque visuals of the MV are a work of art portraying her creative imagination that enhances the therapeutic melody crafted through some well-arranged chords. Deriving inspiration from Jhene Aiko, Doja Cat, and Tory Lanez, she shows outstanding potential at songwriting, exuding through her other masterpieces like 'Whipped', 'Gone For The Night', and 'Xhamadani Vija Vija'. Follow her on YouTube, Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter and watch out for her upcoming single 'Illusion'.

Just go for this song 'Tøngue Tied (Official Lyric Video)' by Sophie Castriota:

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=H-AENb_BK_4

Media Contact

Music Promotion Club

info@musicpromotion.club

Source : Sophie Castriota

See on IssueWire