First time buyers are set to have a great time ahead with the top retail website declaring massive discounts on introductory purchases.

Hong Kong, May 21, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - In a bid to attract more buyers to its site, Ninacloak has decided to offer great discounts on first-time purchases. While the company mostly deals in cheap women's clothing, footwear and fashion accessories; the offer extends for any product, including pet supplies, home and garden items, home decor, kitchen supplies, cleaning tools and more. In addition to that, the company has also allowed free shipping on orders made above a certain price, so as to encourage quick and bulk purchases.

Ninacloak has always taken the attention of the womenfolk for bringing massive sales at different periods, all of which are rated high by customers owing to the finest quality of products that the site procures. For those who have never done any shopping earlier, the site owners claim that the fresh arrivals of vintage T-shirts are also included under the introductory offer.

The senior manager of the team who has been associated with the company for a fairly long time said, "The code is provided at the top of the website, which first time buyers can place at the time of checking out. However, the website is managed well by the team, so our loyal clientele will be prevented from using the code. This is largely done to safeguard the interests of newbies. There will be more offers coming soon as the site frequently provides such discounts and has naturally now become a top favourite for many."

The online store often rolls out special sale and clearance offers, with separate categories in the offers as well. According to the owners, customers can now choose the best of clothing material and avail of the special discounts.

"The introductory offer will be valid for some time now. But once the code is used up, the same customer cannot log in to the site with the same account and make another similar purchase using it. But if someone chooses to use multiple accounts and avail this offer, then it's accepted," explained the CEO of the company, when asked about the process of going about it.
