

Rapper and Hip-hop Artist B has Exemplified His Lyrical Glory in the Verses of the Song 'Picasso'

Upcoming rapper from Iowa, B is creating waves of intense storytelling and thematic verses through a captivating rhythmic pattern in his new song, 'Picasso'.

Iowa City, Dec 31, 1969 (Issuewire.com) - Hip-hop's lyrical intimacy and outspokenness have been a significant part of socio-cultural evolution since the advent of the genre. This movement of community and individualistic plight is now being carried forward by upcoming hip-hop artist and rapper B. He has reached the epitome of his lyrical goals as his newly released song, 'Picasso' is an uncompromising take on the various turbulences and struggles of life and existence. The song is written and composed in such a manner that the artist emerges as the protagonist of the song with his vocal fortitude and ability to reflect his belief in the song. The result is also an emotional undulation that becomes evident as he continues to put in his energy and feelings in making each work important and conspicuous.

The lyrical profound song, 'Picasso' not only established the artist's own ability to formulae songs without the adulteration of the glamor and superficiality of the industry. He is raw, unapologetic, and straightforward in his attempt to convey to the audience his plight. He is a natural poet writing freestyle raps and more and expanding his scope of creative freedom to a whole new degree. Born, Braden Hoksbergen, this rapper from Iowa has allowed his artistic inclusiveness to write about real problems and make songs as a respite for his audience.

Some of the other songs that have paved the way for B's music career into an exponential success include 'Sleep Deprived', 'USED TO IT', and 'DIPLOMACY'. As he continues his reign as a rapper and a lyricist with an unparalleled conviction, he will very soon reach the zenith of cultural and creative acknowledgment and accomplishment on a global platform. His musical sense is unique and allows everyone to relate to his themes as per their own interpretations. Follow his work on Soundcloud, Instagram, and Twitter for an eclectic journey of rap and hip-hop.

Just go for this track 'Picasso' by B : <https://soundcloud.com/bhoksbergen/picasso-1>

Media Contact

Music Promotion Club

info@musicpromotion.club

Source : B

See on IssueWire