

Reiki Raja Yoga Online May Retreat

Boston, May 8, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Divine Heart Center conducted a first virtual retreat that transcended powerful positive healing energy to all participants at their homes. By the blessings of the Gurus healing portals were created at the initiates' homes through which seekers received healing. The connection with the gurus' energies was so strong that the seekers did not feel the lack of physical proximity. The retreat shows how easy it is to connect with the guru and practice with the group of positive like-minded people while enjoying the comforts of your own home.

Many participants felt powerful, transformation energies and for some great spiritual journey of self-realization has started.

This was an international retreat attended by people from the East and West coast of the US, Canada, UK, and India. This virtual retreat allowed people from all over the world to log in and join the practice.

The Divine Heart Center retreat was very inspirational and uplifting. GrandMaster Shailesh had deep spiritual discussions. All spiritual questions were answered and practical solutions were offered.

This retreat has taken the practice to the new level - the guru's blessings can travel through time and space and it has become so easy to tap into, only through a click of a button on a phone or computer. Divine Heart Center also offers various daily meditation sessions where the gurus, masters, and advanced initiates are available to guide through Reiki Raja yoga techniques and answer any questions.
