Get to know Reproductive Endocrinologist and Infertility Specialist Dr. Seth E. Katz, who serves patients in Charlotte, North Carolina.

New York City, May 12, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - With years of experience as a reproductive endocrinologist and infertility specialist, Dr. Katz of the Reproductive Endocrinology Associates of Charlotte can help expand your family. His interests include endometriosis, tubal disease, recurrent pregnancy loss, and polycystic ovarian syndrome. Additionally, he has extensive experience with advanced hysteroscopic and laparoscopic techniques, including advanced tubal surgery and tubal ligation reversal.

“The Reproductive Endocrinology Associates of Charlotte (REACH) has been a leader in treating patients with fertility issues in Charlotte, North Carolina since 1988. Combining decades of experience with state-of-the-art technology, REACH has achieved some of the highest pregnancy rates in the Southeast. REACH is also known for providing compassionate patient care, individualized treatment plans, and the most cost-efficient options, giving you every conceivable chance for success” as stated on their website.

In his path to becoming a fertility doctor, Dr. Katz attended the University of North Carolina School of Medicine in Chapel Hill, where he received his medical degree. He then went on to complete his internship and residency at the University of Arizona Health Science Center Affiliated Hospitals, Department of Gynecology and Obstetrics in Tucson, Arizona. This was followed by a fellowship in reproductive endocrinology at the University of California—San Diego in La Jolla.

To date, the doctor remains a member of several professional and scientific societies, including the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists, the American Society of Reproductive Medicine, the Society of Reproductive Endocrinologists, Endocrine Society, the North American Menopause Society, and the San Diego Reproductive Endocrine Society.

In addition to having conducted several publications, he is board-certified in reproductive endocrinology & infertility and obstetrics & gynecology by the American Board of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (ABOG). The ABOG is a non-profit organization that provides board certification for practicing obstetricians and gynecologists in the United States and Canada.

Reproductive endocrinology and infertility (REI) is a surgical subspecialty of obstetrics and gynecology that trains physicians in reproductive medicine addressing hormonal functioning as it pertains to reproduction, as well as the issue of infertility. While most REI specialists primarily focus on the treatment of infertility, reproductive endocrinologists are trained to also evaluate and treat hormonal dysfunctions in females and males outside after the reproductive years.

Nationally recognized as a leader in the field of reproductive medicine, Dr. Katz is the recipient of the On-Time Doctor Award (2015, 2018) and the Patients’ Choice Award (2018).
