

SONOS MUSIC RECORDS is The New Platform with an Independent Twist for Upcoming Musicians

SONOS MUSIC RECORDS

Bologna, May 10, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - Canio Rosario Maffucci of renowned music publisher and music label based in South Italy, MAFFUCCI MUSIC recently launched SONOS MUSIC RECORDS, a revolutionary break from conventional and systematic approaches under his guidance and ownership. The objective of this company is to provide artists with a resilient platform where they manage and maintain their creative business as per their own pursuits of commitment and professional discipline.

The exponential rise of digital music expansion across the world has led to new opportunities for communication, engagement, and revenue. Artists are not always dependent on representatives or production houses to publish their work and garner income only through independent digital distribution. Many artists invest their own money in structuring music and videos and SONOS MUSIC RECORDS is helping them to showcase their versatility through their platform and global degrees of exposure. Here, artists obtain between 50%-90% of the collective revenue including Mechanical Rights, Digital Distribution, and Licensing along with an exciting 2/3 share of publishing. Apart from these advantages, the company also provides various digital support, radio and video promotion, press campaign, recording opportunities, and other services at affordable price packages.

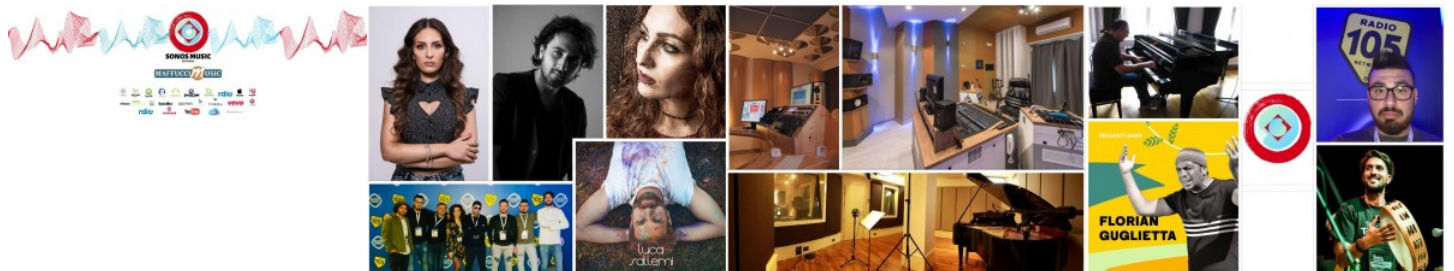

Pianist and composer Canio Rosario Maffucci, the owner of SONOS MUSIC RECORDS along with the executive director of the company, Mr. Giuseppe Lanzetta, another accomplished musician, and two other collaborators have created the avenue of the label. Art director Master Ermanno Corrado is also directly associated with the musical production for SONOS that has allowed musicians to pursue their musical dreams into visual entities. Mr. Muffucci's involvement with music goes back to when he was very young and the influences and exposure to music from an early age led him to accept music in all its essence.

The SONOS catalog nurtures various genres and styles from pop, electropop, and jazz and the newly added opera and Neapolitan styles of music. Some of their artists who have been part of this exquisite experience of musical being include Briganti Band, Ermanno Corrado, Canio Rosario Maffucci, SALBA, Chiara Crystal, Luca Sallemi, Vincenzo Crimaco, The BRAVO, among others. Mr. Muffucci believes that the success of SONOS MUSIC RECORDS lies in its ability to retain art in its most creative and unadulterated form.
