

The Majorz is all geared up to make waves with their upcoming releases

New Jersey, May 19, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - The Majorz is a well-renowned name within the music circuit, especially among fans of hip hop music. Founded by Leron Petersen, Also known as 'Top Prospekt', this group of talented music artists is on top of their musical game with some of the most enchanting and buzz-worthy tracks of the genre. Working under the self-owned label name Major Gang Music, the group continues on their musical journey with the release of their upcoming project, entitled

"Say Grace".

The musical magnificence to be introduced by the upcoming release is projected to garner a larger audience for the talented fragments of The Majorz, of which whom are no complete strangers to putting on stellar performances. The group has now come back to its own league with the release of their track, Turnt Flex'n. Both members of The Majorz, Eazy-G and Top Prospekt have aimed high with this release, making music fans feel the presence of their greatness once more.

Hailing from music mecca, Asbury Park, NJ, the duo is well respected and what many would call, the diamond in the dirt. With a staggering 14k Instagram followers, it does speak a lot about the immense love and fame earned by the group at this point. Ownership, originality, swagger and a great wave of supporters is just a small, yet a magnifying piece of what the well-known duo brings to the table within the local and global industry and now, with even greater anticipation, they are all set to enchant more hip hop lovers and fans with their upcoming releases. Stay tuned.

Media Contact

Leron Petersen

majrleaguemusic@gmail.com

(848)469-6328

Source : Major Gang Music

See on IssueWire