

Accelerated Technologies Holding Corporation. (OTC Markets: "ATHC") $5,000 stimulus plan for reopening local businesses.

ATHC extends free signup for SME's operating in retail, online and mobile environments while discounting fee's until December 31, 2020. Provisions include up to $5000 credit towards consulting and rebranding services per approved application.

New York City, Jun 25, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Businesses operating in retail, online and mobile environments with annual revenues under $2,000,000 per location will be provided with a $5,000 business optimization stimulus credit towards services, free sign-up and a discount on fees due to ATHC as part of ATHC's performance-driven compensation.

During the reopening phase, ATHC intends to expand its consulting unit and will introduce a number of free and heavily discounted solutions. The Company will assist merchants with rebranding, repackaging strategies and menu modifications. Promoting customer loyalty programs, curbside pickup and extending delivery strategies for local merchants is a priority to achieve maximum results.

To further assist SME's, ATHC will introduce on-demand delivery systems (BringSnap.com) before August 2020. BringSnap as compared to uBereats, GrubHub, Seamless and alike is significantly more affordable and will provide access to customer data. Additionally, ATHC is lowering overall payment processing fees <https://intelagy.com/merchant-sign-up/> with 90 day free trials for its ROMPOS systems.

Our objective to provide local merchants with true all-in-one user-friendly solutions for cost-saving efficiencies, business processes and workflow digitization, automated marketing, and analytics for maximum revenue scalability remains unchanged. Additional required integrations, resources, technologies, software applications, customizations, hardware, merchant services and point of sale will be included.

We strive to build customer loyalty for our customers and value for our shareholders as local businesses begin to reopen.

"We intend to discount our fees and utilize user friendly sophisticated technologies to help merchants. To preserve jobs, their businesses, local business owners will need to become more conscience of spending and must repurpose staff while embracing new revenue channels. SMB's should start thinking about generating more revenue via on-demand services such as GrubHub, Seamless, UberEats and online portals alike. Our solutions have been modified, we will be able to streamline business and delivery processes while identifying accountability for small business owners. We are pleased to announce phase one of BringSnap, a more sustainable solution to compete in the on-demand ordering arena." said Alex Lemberg, president ATHC.

Today, ATHC via its subsidiaries begins to restart new client onboarding procedures.
