

Austreme and Acqra Signed a Strategic Cooperation Agreement with Asia Digital Bank

Hong Kong, Jun 11, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - Asia Digital Bank Corporation (“ADBC”), which is bidding for a wholesale digital banking licence in Singapore signed a strategic cooperation agreement with Austreme and Acqra on 8th of June, 2020.

Austreme is a leading RegTech company providing merchant risk management and compliance monitoring services, and a pioneer in anti-transaction laundering and e-commerce store monitoring.

Acqra is an innovative FinTech company specializing in e-commerce payment services, which was established by a team of experts with more than a decade of industry experience in the payment industry.

The three companies’ partnership will focus on providing advanced risk control and compliance capabilities for ADBC and their SME customers, the utilisation of a quicker merchant application and approval process via in-depth e-business background checks, and third simplifying merchant shopping cart integration effort and time.

Media Contact

Austreme

brandon.li@austreme.com

Source : Austreme

See on IssueWire