

Dr. Ankur Pare Completed Post-Doctoral Fellowship

Dr. Ankur Pare is an ideal for today's young generation. He has an excellent academic record. He received the highest education at the youngest age.

Dr ANKUR PARE

New Delhi, Jun 3, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - Internationally renowned Sociologist, Author, and Social Activist Dr. Ankur Pare completed Postdoctoral Research Fellowship. He did a sociological study of families affected by hydroelectric projects and irrigation projects in all the districts of Madhya Pradesh.

Dr. Ankur Pare is ideal for today's young generation. He has an excellent academic record. He received the highest education at the youngest age. He did a Postdoctoral fellowship from ICSSR, Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India. He did PhD (Sociology), M.Phil (Sociology), UGC NET (Sociology), MA (Sociology), LLB, B.Com (Taxation), Post Graduation Diploma in Computer Application, Post Graduate Diploma in yoga science. Notable work has been done by Dr. Ankur Pare in the field of social science research. He worked on 25 research projects at the International and National level. He participated and presented research study on 30 International seminars, 42 National seminars, 26 Conferences, 22 International and National workshop, 16 symposia. He has been working on development and displacement for many years. His book "Sociological study of displaced families" ISBN 978-93-80966-70-0 has been published by sunrise publication, New Delhi.

Dr. Ankur Pare did remarkable work in the field of Higher Education. He did a scientific study of the affected families due to development and displacement, rehabilitation, resettlement, hydroelectric projects, irrigation projects, mining projects, and worked for their upliftment.

Dr. Ankur Pare published 200 research papers in the International and National research journal.

Dr. Ankur Pare did much significant research in the field of land acquisition, migration, problems of refugees, industrialisation and urbanisation, rural community development, food security, disaster management, feminism, good governance, Indian Bureaucracy, democracy, etc.

He did remarkable work in the field of Industry and society, Gender and Society problems of farmers, the suicide of farmers, peasant movement, globalisation and Indian society, liberalisation and Indian agriculture, modernism and religion, etc.

Dr. Ankur Pare has been working for the backward people, deprived people, and poor people for the last 15 years. He did remarkable work for water conservation in backward rural areas, construction of ponds, construction of soakage pit, etc. He provided training to the farmers by organizing camps about advanced agriculture and organic manure. He motivated people for the construction of toilets in backward areas. He runs campaigns for clean India. He worked in many states like Madhya Pradesh, Chhattisgarh, Maharashtra, Gujarat, Uttar Pradesh, Uttarakhand, and Jharkhand, etc.

About Dr. Ankur Pare:-

Dr. Ankur Pare is originally from village Duliya, District Harda, Madhya Pradesh. His father Late. Shri Rajendra Pare was a farmer. His father died recently. His mother does agricultural work.

Dr. Ankur Pare has been a Research advisor, Consultant, Project Director, Research Officer, Post Doctoral researcher at many renowned Institutions. He was an Assistant Professor and HOD at Private University.

He is well known for his philanthropic work. He conducted camps on the elimination of malaria, blood donation, eye donation, AIDS awareness programs, and Yoga training, and many public awareness campaigns to prevent child marriage, female foeticide, dowry, domestic violence, etc. He encouraged girl's education and school dropout girls to go to school and organizes skill development programs for the youths. He conducted self-employment training camps for youths and women. He conducted camps for the solution of social and psychological problems of old aged people and he worked for the formation of self-help groups.

For More Details - <http://drankurpare.com/>

Media Contact

Dr. Ankur Pare

ankurpare20@gmail.com

Source : Dr. Ankur Pare

See on IssueWire