Serge B. PierreCharles, MD, a Physical Medicine, Rehabilitation, Sports Medicine and Pain Management Specialist with Superior Performance Center

New York City, Jun 29, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. PierreCharles is a board-certified physiatrist, a pain management specialist, a Certified Ringside Physician, and a sports medicine physician with extensive experience in the field of sports and rehabilitation medicine. He is the owner and operator of Superior Performance Center located in New Hope, Minnesota.

Superior Performance Center is a high-performance sports medicine, pain, and premier wellness group that offers a full spectrum of non-surgical, orthopedic, and regenerative treatments that help patients to continue to do the things they love, without any pain. There, Dr. PierreCharles specializes in treating several acute and chronic musculoskeletal (MSK) injuries, concussions, and nonsurgical fracture management.

Working with people of all ages, he also provides pre-participation physicals, procedural Botox® for chronic migraines, platelet-rich plasma and stem cell regenerative medicine, ultrasound and MRIs for MSK injuries, ImPACT testing for concussions, interventional pain management, neuro-rehabilitation, clinical acupuncture, and preventive and rehabilitative exercises. Aside from Superior Performance Center, he also sees patients at Trinity Hospital in Minot, North Dakota.

Having always wanted to pursue a career in medicine, Dr. PierreCharles enrolled at the Ross University School of Medicine, earning his medical degree in 2010. He then went on to complete his residency in physical medicine & rehabilitation at the University of Minnesota Medical School in 2013. After his residency, he went on to complete his ACGME sports medicine fellowship at MacNeal Hospital-Loyola University in the Chicago area.

Over the course of his impressive career, he has served as a provider of nonsurgical orthopedic sports medicine and pediatric orthopedics at various locations throughout Chicago. He has also served as a sports physician for various schools and national teams, notably Chicago Sky, Chicago Bandits, Windy City Thunderbolts, and the Schaumburg Boomers.

Licensed to practice medicine in several states, the doctor is board-certified through the American Board of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation, which was established in 1947 as the certifying body for the field of physical medicine and rehabilitation under the American Board of Medical Specialties.

Physical medicine and rehabilitation, also known as physiatry and physiatrics, is a branch of medicine that aims to enhance and restore functional ability and quality of life to those with physical impairments or disabilities. Physiatrists treat a wide variety of medical conditions affecting the brain, spinal cord, nerves, bones, joints, ligaments, muscles, and tendons.

A firm believer in patient education and individualized care, Dr. PierreCharles is recognized by Continental Who's Who as a Lifetime Achiever in Sports Medicine. He is also the recipient of the 2018 & 2019 Top Doctor Award for Minneapolis, Minnesota.

An avid marathoner, he has participated in the 5k and 10k Triathlon, the Susan Komen Walk, and the Chicago Marathon. He also enjoys further developing his natural ability for languages, possessing fluency in English, Spanish, French, and Haitian Creole.
