Get to know Internist Dr. Giovanni R. Crosland, who serves patients in Tremonton, Utah.

New York City, Jun 16, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Crosland is a well-versed internist who specializes in the treatment of chronic medical conditions in the adult population. These include high blood pressure, diabetes, cholesterol disorders, chronic obstructive lung disease, and more.

In his current capacity, he tends to patients at Bear River Clinic in Tremonton, Utah, which is a part of Intermountain Healthcare. He also holds medical privileges at the following Intermountain hospitals:

Bear River Valley Hospital, Dixie Regional Medical Center River Road, and Logan Regional Hospital.

Following the completion of his Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine (DO) degree from Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine in 2015, Dr. Crosland went on to complete his residency within the Internal Medicine Residency Program at Bingham Memorial Hospital in 2018.

A member of the American Osteopathic Association, the doctor is board-certified in internal medicine by the American Board of Internal Medicine, a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

Internal medicine is the medical specialty dealing with the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of adult diseases. Physicians specializing in internal medicine are called internists. They manage and prevent common and complex diseases by providing comprehensive care and promoting overall well-being.

Outside of the office, Dr. Crosland enjoys spending time with his family, including his wife and five children, doing outdoor recreation. His hobbies include woodworking, skiing, camping, and doing projects around the house.
