New York City, Jun 29, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - Being a seasoned internist, Dr. Farhat provides comprehensive care and manages treatment, while incorporating disease prevention and mental health care into his practice. He is affiliated with The Mount Sinai Hospital in New York City, New York.

Founded in 1852, The Mount Sinai Hospital is one of the nation's largest and most respected hospitals, acclaimed internationally for excellence in clinical care. Ranked among the top hospitals nationwide, it serves one of the most diverse populations in the world. It is also a part of Mount Sinai Health System, whose mission is "to provide compassionate patient care with seamless coordination and to advance medicine through unrivaled education, research, and outreach in the many diverse communities we serve."

In 1994, Dr. Farhat obtained his medical degree from the Complutense University of Madrid, Faculty of Medicine. After relocating to the United States, he went on to serve his residency at The Brooklyn Hospital Center in New York.

Before long, the doctor became board-certified in internal medicine by the American Board of Internal Medicine, a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

Internal medicine is the medical specialty dealing with the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of adult diseases. Physicians specializing in internal medicine are called internists. They manage and prevent common and complex diseases by providing comprehensive care and promoting overall well-being.
