New York City, Jun 25, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - Honored as a Top Doc 2017 and as one of Connecticut's Best Doctors of 2018 by Connecticut Magazine, Dr. Graham is a devoted obstetrician-gynecologist with over three decades of experience in his field. He is in practice with Women's Health Connecticut - Women's Comprehensive Health Care in Glastonbury, Connecticut.

Founded in 1997, Women's Health Connecticut is a network of exemplary providers who have an unrivaled devotion to women. Together, they focus strictly on women's health, providing the women of Connecticut and central Massachusetts access to the most skilled OB-GYNs and a consistent level of compassionate care across all of their locations. Since its founding, Women's Health Connecticut has become one of the largest and most successful women's health groups in the nation.

Throughout his academic career, Dr. Graham attended the University of Scranton, where he received both his undergraduate and master's degrees in Biology. He then went on to earn his medical degree from the Lewis Katz School of Medicine at Temple University in 1983. Following this, he completed his residency in obstetrics and gynecology at Hartford Hospital in 1987.

A Fellow of the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists, the doctor is board-certified in obstetrics and gynecology by the American Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology, which is a non-profit organization that provides board certification for practicing obstetricians and gynecologists in the United States and Canada.

Obstetrics and Gynecology is the medical specialty that encompasses the two subspecialties of obstetrics (covering pregnancy, childbirth, and the postpartum period) and gynecology (covering the health of the female reproductive system – vagina, uterus, ovaries, and breasts). An obstetrician-gynecologist, or OB-GYN, is a healthcare professional who specializes in female reproductive health.
