

Positive Energy Releases First Single of the Bubble Sound Ep Titled “Freak”

New York City, Jun 7, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - The holland-based rapper known as Positive Energy releases his latest single titled 'Freak'. This track is the first of his much anticipated Bubble Sound EP which is to be an instant hit amongst lovers of this genre of music.

He gathered the attention of his fans around the world with his 'Made in Holland' mixtape, released in November 2017, and is back with this epic club banger. Perfectly blended lyrics in both Dutch and English, it holds a lot of support and love in the hearts of a huge fan base from different backgrounds and ethnicity.

The rapper seems to have channeled a lot of this positive energy himself, for a young African born in Liberia and witnessed the bloody civil war, it takes a lot of positivity to become the man he has become today. In almost 10 years of leaving the war zone for the Netherlands, he has recorded a lot of achievements in his career so far. Working with a lot of professionals and producers to entertain his ever-increasing audience, Mo as he is also popularly called, has hits like 'Snelle Money', 'All eyes on me', 'You and me' and 'Trouble' which earned radio play across many radio stations.

'Freak' produced by Dariosantana which is also going to be released along with the official video is a dance-worthy song, for ladies who love to twerk to their favorite tunes and guys who like to groove into their weekends with a drink in hand, this tune is a must-have on your playlist. Dj's and club owners who want to keep the party rocking; this is highly recommended for you, strippers and pole dancers need this freaky but positive energy.
