Get to know Hand Surgeon Dr. Ryan Joseph Grabow, who serves patients in Nevada.

New York City, Jun 3, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Grabow, a reputable hand surgeon, is the owner and operator of Grabow Hand to Shoulder Center with two offices in Henderson and Las Vegas, Nevada. He provides comprehensive care from the shoulder to the fingertips with a goal to ensure that each of his patients receives personalized and individual attention for their needs and concerns.

Throughout the years, he has cared for numerous collegiate athletes and New York Philharmonic musicians and performers from the New York City Ballet and Broadway productions. He has admitting privileges at hospitals and medical centers throughout the Valley, including St. Rose Dominican Hospitals, Siena Campus; St. Rose Dominican Hospitals, de Lima Campus; St. Rose Dominican Hospitals, San Martin Campus; Sunrise Hospital & Medical Center; Southern Hills Hospital; Spring Valley Hospital; and Summerlin Hospital.

Born and raised in Cleveland, Ohio, Dr. Grabow attended the University of Notre Dame and received his medical degree from the Medical College of Ohio. During medical school, he was inducted into the AOA National Medical Honor Society and received numerous academic and leadership awards. He completed his residency in orthopaedic surgery at Case Western Reserve University.

After residency, he completed an additional year of fellowship training, specializing in surgery of the hand, wrist, elbow, and shoulder at the prestigious St. Luke's - Roosevelt Hospital in New York City; and pediatric hand & upper extremity surgery at Texas Scottish Rite Children's Hospital in Dallas, Texas. He also received additional training in advanced microsurgery at Columbia University; minimally invasive shoulder, elbow, & wrist surgery; shoulder and elbow replacement; Dupuytren's needle aponeurotomy; and the management and reconstruction of complex fractures of the hand to shoulder.

As a testament to his success, the doctor is board-certified in orthopaedics and surgery of the hand by the American Board of Surgery, an independent, non-profit organization located in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, founded for the purpose of certifying surgeons who have met a defined standard of education, training, and knowledge. He is a candidate member of the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons, the American Society for Surgery of the Hand, and the Arthroscopy Association of North America.

Hand surgery is surgery of the hand, the wrist, and the peripheral nerves of the upper limb. It also encompasses reconstructive surgery that improves upper limb function. Many disorders and injuries of the hand are treated without surgery, using splints, taping, injections, and hand physiotherapy. Hand surgeons care for these problems with and without surgery. They are specially trained to operate when necessary. Many hand surgeons are also experts in diagnosing and caring for shoulder and elbow problems.

An active member of his community, Dr. Grabow lives in Henderson with his wife, Heidi, and enjoys fishing, hiking, snowboarding, as well as playing golf and tennis.
