

“SWEET” News – Cupid Candies launches online store

Chicago, IL (June 1, 2020) Cupid Candies is proud to announce a new website launch.

Chicago, Jun 3, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Cupid Candies, established in 1936 remains a family-owned and operated business serving wholesale and retail customers throughout the Midwest.

Known for their premium handcrafted confections, Cupid Candies is now available online at www.cupidcandies.com.

The new website offers a clean, modern design, secure and easy navigation for online ordering along with helpful tools and resources. The purpose behind the new look and feel of the Cupid Candies website is to stay at the forefront of industry trends and technology to better serve our customers.

“We’re thrilled to launch the new website and strongly feel it will serve as a useful, informative portal for our retail and wholesale clients” stated President, John Stefanos.

The Cupid Candies tradition continues with their original secret family recipes which use only the finest, premium ingredients. All-natural, no preservatives, and made fresh daily. Through this launch, Cupid Candies strives to serve the next generation with all the Cupid Candies favorites they've grown to love.

For more information on the Cupid Candies website, please contact Cynthia Nielsen at 773-895-8738.

About Cupid Candies: Family-owned and operated since 1936, Cupid Candies is a family-owned business founded by Paul Stefanos to manufacture quality chocolates, nuts, candies, and ice cream. 80+ years later, Cupid Candies still serves Chicagoland residents from their own retail stores located in Chicago, Oak Lawn, and Orland Park.
