UTU members now have the option to book their flights through the newly released UTU Bookings feature, powered by Skyscanner. This service takes UTU a step forward in our mission to deliver value across different stages of the tourist journey. UTU Bookings will be available from mid-June.

UTU and Skyscanner are pleased to announce an affiliate agreement to deliver flight bookings directly through the UTU Tax-Free app. The tie-up further establishes UTU as a single touchpoint for tourists, supporting our customers throughout their travel journey – from the moment they start exploring flight options for their next trip to the time they want to receive the highest VAT refund value for their overseas shopping.

Leading travel company Skyscanner was founded in 2003 and is dedicated to putting travellers first by making the process of booking trips as simple as possible. As a global travel marketplace, Skyscanner helps more than 100 million people in 52 countries and regions find the best travel options for flights, hotels and car hires every month.

The affiliate partnership aligns with UTU's ethos of delivering value throughout the tourist journey while exemplifying the mutual value of customer centricity shared by UTU & Skyscanner alike. Equally, this Partnership reflects a spirit of cooperation among businesses in the travel community, despite these turbulent times.

The Skyscanner booking service will be available under a new product called 'UTU Bookings' and will be available in the UTU Tax-Free app in mid-June. The booking engine will allow users to see all the information regarding available flights in one place, making travel planning just that much easier.
