

Washington Hospitality Association launches industry podcast

Washington Hospitality Association PODCAST

Learn more at www.wahospitality.org

Olympia, Jun 1, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - In its continuing mission to be the primary source of hospitality industry information, the Washington Hospitality Association is excited to announce the launch of the Washington Hospitality Industry Podcast. This new page collects the audio streams of our latest webinars, news updates and exclusive industry resources. It can be accessed from Apple iTunes and Spotify, as well as from podcast.wahospitality.org.

- Washington Hospitality Industry Podcast is regularly updated and features industry news and helpful information for member businesses.
- Members can “sponsor” the entire show. Sponsorships include a 15-minute interview, during which we’ll invite members to discuss their establishment, history and passion for hospitality. After the show concludes, we will post it online and send a digital copy of the show to sponsors for their use.
- Any questions or comments regarding the show, or companies interested in sponsorships may contact Ken Wells via email at kenw@wahospitality.org.

This is only the beginning of what the association has in store, and user involved in the hospitality industry are encouraged to check regularly to see what new podcasts, interviews and information have become available.

Media Contact

Washington Hospitality Association

lexn@wahospitality.org

360.956.7279

510 Plum St.

Source : Washington Hospitality Association

See on IssueWire